

Fold-Over Party Invitation

Designed By: Sonya Oshiro

May 2010

I love to make wedding invitations! This one is pretty and very easy to make! You can change the theme for any type of party invitation such as birthdays or baby/bridal showers.

Instructions

Step 1

Open A2 May Bonus Invitation.doc. Customize information to your event and information, i.e. names, date, time, place, etc. Print out document on one sheet of Very Vanilla card stock. If you do not have the CAC Shishoni Brush font, it can be downloaded for free at: <http://www.scrapvillage.com/fontsc.htm>

Note: Before printing on Very Vanilla card stock, you may want to print a test page to make sure the document prints out correctly, or if you need to adjust the margins.

Step 2

Cut card stock along dashed lines (size should be 4" x 5-1/4" for each invitation).

Step 3

Run your 2-1/2" x 3" piece of Rich Razzleberry card stock through the Big Shot using the Beautiful Wings Embossalits die. Repeat for the 2-1/2" x 3" piece of Pale Plum card stock.

Step 3

Step 4

Using SNAIL adhesive, adhere butterflies together as shown in picture below and then adhere them to your invitation.

Step 4

Step 5

Using Clear rhinestone brads, remove the clear rhinestones from the brads. To do this, spread apart the long brad prongs and then using the Paper Piercer, lift up the short prongs that hold in the rhinestones. Be careful not to puncture yourself! Once done, the rhinestone will 'pop' out.

Step 5

Step 5

Step 5

Step 5

Step 6

Using Tombow Multi Purpose adhesive, apply a small amount to the middle of the butterflies and then stick the rhinestones on. If you have a difficult time grabbing the rhinestones, try using tweezers.

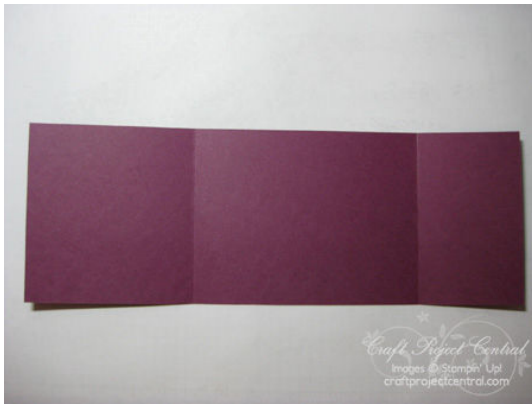

Step 6

Step 7

Score your 12" x 4-1/4" Rich Razzleberry card stock at 4" and 9-1/2" along the long edge. Use the 3/16" Corner Rounder punch and round all four edges.

Step 7

Step 7

Step 8

Stamp "You're Invited" from the Wedding Sweet stamp set on the smaller flap with a Very Vanilla Craft Stampin' Pad as shown in the picture. Run the outside flaps through the Big Shot using the Stampin' Up! Manhattan Flower textured impressions embossing folder. Note: Make sure to let the craft ink dry completely before running through the Big Shot.

Step 8

Step 8

Step 9

With the Crop-A-Dile, set the 1/8" hole punch ruler to 1/2". Punch two 1/8" holes in the flap, inserting the Crop-A-Dile as far as it can go. Fold the other flap in and then fold over the flap that you just punched on top of that one. Take a pencil and mark the underneath flap where you just punched the two holes. Get your Crop-A-Dile and take off the 1/2" setting. Punch where you just marked the flap with the 1/8" side of the Crop-A-Dile.

Step 9

Step 10

Using SNAIL adhesive, adhere Very Vanilla card stock to the inside of the invitation. Thread 5/8" Very Vanilla satin ribbon through the holes and tie a bow on the front, cutting off the excess.
